

YOU CONTROL YOUR OWN FATE
CHOOSE TO RISE ABOVE

STUDENTS AGAINST DESTRUCTIVE DECISIONS
LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

November 16-18, 2012
Hilton North Raleigh/Midtown Hotel
Raleigh, North Carolina

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

3 - 6 P.M.

Registration
(Room Keys Issued to Chaperones Only)
Luggage Storage

CAPITAL REGISTRATION

CONGRESSIONAL ROOM

6:30 - 8:30 P.M.

Opening Session

CAPITAL SALON DEFG

Welcome

Kaleigh Allen, West Johnston High School, Benson

Claire Pelletier, Southwest Onslow High School, Jacksonville

Recognition of Schools (School Shout Out)

Introduction of Presenter

Thomas Hiatt, Albemarle High School, Albemarle

Stavonna Petty, Person High School, Roxboro

Keynote Presentation: Make the Right Choice

Chad Hatley

Involvement with drugs and alcohol is destructive. You have free will. You make choices by which you either reap rewards or suffer consequences.

You control your own fate.

Conference Protocol

Student Advisory Board

Meet the SAB

Closing Remarks

Harriett Southerland, SADD State Coordinator

Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office

8 - 9 P.M.

Pizza Time!

8:45 - 9 P.M.

Mandatory Chaperone Meeting

BOXWOOD

9 - 10:30 P.M.

Olympic Games

SALON DEFG

Led by the Student Advisory Board, students and advisors learn to work as a team to have more active and effective chapters.

10:30 - 11:15 P.M.

Schole (Leisure Time) Make New Friends!

11:30 P.M.

Curfew - Room checks by chaperones

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

7:30 A.M.

Akratisma (Breakfast)

SALON 3FG

8 - 9 A.M.

Welcome

Christine Henry, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
James Tucker, Western Carolina University, Cullowhee

Keynote Presentation: Leadership: The Power of 3
Motivational Media Assemblies, Burbank, California

Each of our actions improves or reduces the amount of good in society. If we team up with others to push things in positive directions, we will see quicker results. Youth face some critical situations. The power of one voice, two actions, and teams of three could change problems and save lives. We need leaders who see the POWER OF 3.

Workshops (Students: See your conference folder for session assignments)

9:10 - 10:25 A.M.

Student Workshops Session 1

9 - 10 A.M.

Advisor Workshop Session 1

10:35 - 11:50 A.M.

Student Workshops Session 2

11:50 A.M. - 12:50 P.M.

Deipnon (Lunch)

"Keeping Everybody Safe"

Joco Teen Drivers of West Johnston High School share how they empower their peers to make good decisions behind the wheel.

1 - 2:15 P.M.

Student Workshops Session 3

1 - 2 P.M.

Advisor Workshop Session 2

2:25 - 2:40 P.M.

Student Workshops Session 4

2:40 - 6 P.M.

Scholé (Leisure Time)

STUDENT WORKSHOPS

APHRODITE SPEAKS

SALON C

Annette Carrington Johnson, Durham County Health Department, Durham
You make healthier choices when you're fully informed. In this frank and open workshop, you will learn to separate fact from myth and learn assertive communication skills to say "no" to risky behavior that can lead to unplanned pregnancy or STD's.

SOTERIA SPEAKS

SALON AB

Alexa Steverson, Carolinas Poison Center, Charlotte
In the last few years, prescription painkiller misuse and abuse has become more of a danger than underage alcohol or even street drug use. Learn how you can work in your schools and communities to fight this growing problem.

HERA SPEAKS

Mary Ann Riley, Addiction Recovery Professionals and Smoky Prevention, Asheville
In this "Safe Dates" role playing session, you will learn to recognize the red flags that signal an unhealthy or potentially abusive relationship and what you can do to keep yourself and your peers safe when dating.

BOXWOOD

APOLLO SPEAKS

The Student Advisory Board
In this powerful connection-building workshop, you will learn to break through separation and isolation to create environments where learning and growth thrive.

DOGWOOD

ADVISOR WORKSHOPS

DIONYSUS SPEAKS

Aidil Ortiz Hill, Youth Empowered Resources (YES), Durham
Information on the Talk It Up. Lock It Up! and the Project Alcopop Sticker Shock programs will help strengthen your leadership skills by teaching you a hands-on approach to preventing underage drinking by influencing access to alcohol.

JUDICIAL ROOM

ATHENA SPEAKS

Harriett Southerland, State Coordinator, Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office
Elizabeth Bonilla, West Johnston High School SADD and Joco Teen Drivers Advisor
Need help? This discussion of programming and challenges will help you lead stronger, more active chapters. You will also have the opportunity to share new skills with your fellow advisors.

JUDICIAL ROOM

6:30 - 8:30 P.M.

Banquet

SALON DEFG

National Anthem
Zachary Leonard, West Johnston High School, Benson

Welcome
Christine Henry

Candlelight Memorial Ceremony

Musical Tribute
Stavonna Petty

Invocation
Kara Byrd, Enloe High School, Raleigh

Introduction of the Secretary
Abigale Lowery, Person High School, Roxboro and Claire Pelletier

Greetings and Remarks

Moses Carey, Secretary, N.C. Department of Administration

Dinner

Introduction of Presenter

Kaleigh Allen and Thomas Hiatt

Keynote Presenter

Algenon Cash

Are you LOCKED IN?

You have the opportunity to demonstrate both positive and negative behaviors. Do you live a healthy life by making choices and decisions that produce positive outcomes? You will receive seeds of information to assist you in your decision-making process and your leadership of other youth.

Tribute to Advisors

Stavonna Petty and James Tucker

Presentation of the 2012-2013 Advisor of the Year and Student of the Year Awards

Harriett Southerland

SADD State Coordinator

Closing Remarks

Stephanie Nantz, Executive Director

9 - 11:30 P.M.

Toga Dance

SALON DEFG

12 MIDNIGHT

Room checks by chaperones

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18

8 - 9 A.M.

Check Out

Remove all belongings from rooms before any keys are turned in.

Luggage Storage

Congressional Room

9 A.M. - 12 NOON

Akratisma (Breakfast) and Closing Ceremonies

SALON DEFG

Welcome and Pledge

Claire Pelletier and Abigale Lowery

Olympic Rings

Conference Recap

Awards and Recognitions

30th Anniversary Conference in Pictures

Remarks

Harriett Southerland, SADD State Coordinator

Adjournment

Thanks to all of you for making this conference a success.

Remember to buckle-up and drive safely.

YOUR 2012-2013 STUDENT ADVISORY BOARD

KALEIGH ALLEN, a senior in Johnston County, speaks in a fake British accent and wishes she was a Slytherin. KARA BYRD, a senior in Wake County, can throw a football farther than her older brother. CHRISTINE HENRY, a college freshman in Orange County, is a left-handed Canadian who is allergic to everything. THOMAS HIATT, a senior in Stanley County, is the only male cheerleader in his county. ABIGALE LOWERY, a junior in Person County, went to India and saw a monkey holding its baby. STAVONNA PETTY, a junior in Person County, is in a gospel group called "The Mighty Harmonaires." CLAIRE PELLETIER, a junior from Onslow County, once caught a shark. JAMES TUCKER, a college freshman in Jackson County, plays Ultimate Frisbee and has lip-synced to Miley Cyrus.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

ANNETTE CARRINGTON JOHNSON is Program Manager of the Communicable Disease and Maternal Child Health Program in the Durham County Health Department and an adjunct professor at N.C. Central University. She is a youth educator who views young people as positive assets in the community. She sponsors youth summits, youth conferences and other youth-lead events. She coordinates TEAS (Together Everyone Accomplishes Something), a pregnancy prevention program sponsored by the Durham County Health Department. Annette strongly believes that all youth should be fully informed in order to make healthy, safe decisions in their relationships. She has a Master of Science Degree in Health Promotion and Human Science.

ALGENON CASH is the managing director of Wharton Gladden - a real estate investment banking firm. He launched the Power of One Fund to support local charities that provide services to victims of homelessness, substance abuse and domestic violence. He teaches leadership skills, business development, financial literacy, and a variety of principles that will lead you to success. Helping people develop to their full potential is important to Algenon. Among his many recognitions, Algenon was named by the Triad Business Journal one of the "40 Leaders Under Forty." He is also a recipient of the National Developing Leaders Award. He is a regular guest on the Bill LuMaye Show, where he discusses topics such as economic issues and community activism. According to Algenon, "we live in a changing environment, so in order to be effective and successful, you must develop a personal philosophy that empowers you to have a vision and manage self." Algenon has overcome many personal challenges, built a successful company, and inspired others to pursue their goals. He has developed a motivating philosophy with a strict focus on clarifying and putting into practice what we believe in, living life with a purpose, dreaming an audacious vision, and building powerful relationships."

AIDIL ORTIZ HILL lives in Durham, N.C. She has a degree in Public Relations from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and a Master's Degree in Counseling from North Carolina Central University. In her community, she has chaired her neighborhood advocacy group, Uplift East Durham, for over four years. They've successfully lobbied for measures that promote biking/pedestrianism, safety and home ownership. Formerly a voting rights coordinator for ex-felons, she now does adolescent health policy work through a youth empowerment approach with an organization called Youth Empowered Solutions (YES!). Youth in her program have been nationally recognized through the Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids' Youth Advocate of the Year Award and by the OJJDP Enforcing Underage Drinking Laws program.

SAMUEL CHADWICK HATLEY, "CHAD" grew up in Harnett County and lives in Angier, N.C. He graduated from Cape Fear Community College in Wilmington and the University of North Carolina at Wilmington. He majored in business marketing and works as a bulk merchandiser. He is married to his college sweetheart, Courtney, and they have a four-month-old son, Chance.

JOJO TEEN DRIVERS is a peer-to-peer safety program for young drivers. Its goal is to raise awareness about the top driving dangers for teens and prevent crashes involving young drivers. The program empowers teens to spread the word among their peers about deadly driving risks and encourages them to make smart choices while behind the wheel and as passengers.

THE NATIONAL ALLIANCE FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT/MOTIVATIONAL MEDIA

ASSEMBLIES is the international leader in school assembly events. Started in 1985, MMA productions have been viewed by over 51 million students in the U.S., Canada, Australia and Taiwan. Featuring clips from today's most popular movies, music videos and incredible sports footage, MMA shows deal with the themes of decision-making, conflict resolution, drug prevention, traffic safety and personal excellence. Follow up materials include discussion guides, integrated curricula and project action plans.

MARY ANN RILEY lives in Asheville. She graduated from UNC Asheville with a degree in sociology. She is certified in a number of nationally recognized prevention programs and trains other facilitators throughout Western North Carolina. She works as a prevention trainer and facilitator at Addiction Recovery Professionals and Smoky Prevention. Mary Ann conducts trainings in media literacy and the prevention of alcohol, tobacco and other drug abuse, dating abuse and sexual assault. She also facilitates classes that teach parents the skills to promote the overall wellness of their children and family.

ALEXA STEVERSON is the Poison Information and Education Coordinator at Carolinas Poison Center. Her primary responsibilities are to educate North Carolinians about poison prevention, the dangers of poisons, and to create awareness about the services the poison center provides. Alexa has worked as an educator for 10 years. She has a background in education, corporate communications, and broadcast media where she has been a producer for both television news and news talk radio. She has a Master's Degree in English from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Alexa's passion is to "train-the-trainer" by empowering other health educators with poison safety messages.

CHOOSE TO RISE ABOVE

WE THANK OUR SADD CONFERENCE CO-SPONSOR
THE GOVERNOR'S HIGHWAY SAFETY PROGRAM,
N.C. DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

For additional funding, we also thank
The Office of Prevention and Early Intervention,
N.C. Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities,
Substance Abuse Services
N.C. Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission
Farm Bureau Insurance
WakeMed

WE THANK THE FOLLOWING FOR DONATING THEIR SERVICES

Durham County Health Department

WE THANK THE FOLLOWING FOR THEIR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE CONFERENCE

AT&T, Albemarle High School, Appalachian State University, Carolina Hurricanes, Carolinas Poison Center, Crime Stoppers of Onslow County, Domino's Pizza, Duke
University Stores, East Carolina University, Food Lion, Hilton North Raleigh/Midtown
Hotel, North Carolina State University, Onslow County Sheriff's Department, Peebles,
Pepsi Bottling Ventures, St. Mary's AME Church, Sgt. John Taylor, U.S. Army, Tractor
Supply, University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, Western Carolina University, West
Johnston High School Art Department, MGM Speakers Bureau,

The State SADD Conference is a project of
The Youth Advocacy and Involvement Office
N.C. Department of Administration
Beverly Eaves Perdue, Governor
Moses Carey, Jr., Secretary
June W. Michaux, Deputy Secretary
Stephanie Nantz, Executive Director
Harriett Southerland, SADD State Coordinator